

Tin Cinnamon

BAND STORY

i was born on a winter day, a sunny monday in 1979. i don' t like monday. but if i sing on monday, i turn it into a friendly mon. i like to sing, cause it makes me happy. i like to make music, cause it makes me happy, i like to draw, cause it makes me happy and i like to live in silence, cause i don' t like noise. my head is a factory, my heart a bonfire. my god is nature and i' m an islander. cinnamon is a wild and foxy spice. if you wanna heat up your soft parts, body, soul and ghost, dig your nose in a tin of cinnamon and powder your brain.
